

RESEARCH SEMINAR:

MINING AND ENVIRONMENTAL CHANGE IN AFRICAN HISTORY

Friday 3 November 2017

COLIN MATTHEW ROOM, HISTORY FACULTY, OXFORD

PROGRAMME

(Tea/coffee available in the Common Room from 1.45pm)

2.00 - 3.40: Session One

Gavin Bridge (Durham)

'To the Ends of the Earth: extraction as a political ecology of capital circulation'

Corey Ross (Birmingham)

'Ecology, Exchange, and the Multiple Frontiers of Colonial Africa's Copperbelt'

Discussant: Miles Larmer (Oxford)

3.40: Tea/coffee break

4.00 - 5.40: Session Two

Iva Peša (Oxford)

'Tailings, trees and crops: An environmental history of the Central African Copperbelt'

Deborah Bryceson (Edinburgh)

'Artisanal Gold Rushes and Small Towns in Tanzania, 1980-2002: Dynamics of Urban Agglomeration and Economic Diversification'

Discussant: William Beinart (Oxford)

5.45: Drinks in the Common Room

European Research Council
Established by the European Commission

